Subject: Revised Ozone NAAQS Final Rule

State Air Directors

The Administrator signed a final rule today that revises the current NAAQS for ozone to 70 ppb.

EPA's website with the final rule and supporting information is now live as of noon mountain time.
<http://www3.epa.gov/airquality/ozonepollution/actions.html>

EPA will issue a press release on the ozone revision at 12:15 mountain and a press call will be held at 12:30.

Attached is a memo from Janet McCabe titled: Implementing the 2015 Ozone National Ambient Air Quality Standards
It outlines the schedule for designations, EPA's plan related to background ozone and interstate transport issues, and a number of other topics.

There will be state, industry and NGO calls scheduled later this afternoon (mountain time).
